

NATIVE PLANT SOURCES IN WNY

These four growers provided most of the native plants for the Ralph Wilson Park project. They are great sources for local native plants to make your yard more wildlife friendly.

AMANDA'S GARDEN

www.amandasnativeplants.com

Located in Dansville, NY, specializes in propagating native perennial wildflowers, ferns, grasses, and sedges to support sustainable landscapes and biodiversity.

EASTERN MONARCH BUTTERFLY FARM

www.easternmonarchbutterflyfarm.com

Based in Clarence, NY, this self-funded organization is dedicated to increasing the monarch butterfly population through habitat restoration, butterfly releases, and educational outreach.

THE ENGLISH GARDNER

www.english-gardner.com

Located in Buffalo, NY, this firm creates custom, sustainable gardens and outdoor spaces featuring native plants, stonework, and lighting.

ROYAL FERN NURSERY

www.facebook.com/royalfern nursery/

Based in Fredonia, NY, specializes in native plants and seeds for ecological restoration and sustainable landscaping projects.

